Learning the Word:

February 2019

So, let's talk about the Lectionary. Do you know it?

It was conceived long years ago (and revised in the 50s and 60s) and is a universal plan for all Christians to read through the Bible (all sixty-six books) over a three year period. The advantage of 'preaching the Lectionary' is that it 'forces you into the opportunity of hearing and learning the height and depth of scripture; it misses nothing.

So, let's dive in for today.

I normally 'write' my Pastor's Page on the tenth day of each month. (When I'm on time it aids me getting a jump on the month and allows our Administrative Assistant to not have to wait. Too often there is a wait on articles when deadlines loom.)

The Lectionary reading for February 10, 2019 is:

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany - February 10, 2019

- Isaiah 6:1-8, (9-13)
- Psalm 138
- 1 Corinthians 15:1-11
- Luke 5:1-11

See how that works? The arrangement of the readings is:

1. Old Testament selection, occasionally a New Testament reading (i.e. Acts in Easter)
2. A Psalm portion
3. A New Testament lesson other than a Gospel reading, most often an Epistle
4. A Gospel reading

Let's take today Luke 5: 1 – 11 (see above)

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

5 One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, the people were crowding around him and listening to the word of God. 2 He saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. 3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat. 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch." 5 Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets." 6 When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. 7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. 8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" 9 For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, 10 and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people." 11 So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

It's a bit long to add to an already long pastoral page but it's worth it!

I don't know about you but sometimes it feels as if the church is casting a net. And coming up empty. Over and over.

Lately it feels as if church is less and less a priority. But HARK, people do not live by fish alone but BY EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDS FROM THE MOUTH OF GOD!

There have been days when I'm down in dumps (not often) but reading the Psalms both calms and lifts me. There has come Wisdom from Proverbs that has sometimes startled me with its uncanny insight and practical counsel. I am always inspired by the Gospels. I never hear enough about Jesus and how he lived (and showed us the way).

The truth is (truth is) that the Word of the Lord is sufficient for all seasons. Word!

All millennia. All eras of history and dips and turns, twists and paths.

Our task, Faithful, is to simply rest in the Lord. To study the Word. And to follow where God calls us to mission.

That is where the harvest lies. That is where we will grow like mustard weeds! Seeds that sprout and thrive and are fruitful beyond our meager imagination.

Wait upon the Lord and you will not grow weary; your arms, feeling like rubber bands from casting nets, will gain sinew and vigor from the Word which is able to always show us the way ahead. Amen.

PER CAPITA

Each church in PCUSA helps support the Office of the General Assembly (OGA) in Louisville, Kentucky. This office is funded through "per capita". Congregations pay this "per capita" based on the number of active members they have. Our total cost for the "per capita" is about $5,000, which comes from our general fund. Currently, 51 members pay the per capita for themselves, which amounts to $1980. Session is asking everyone to consider donating their individual portion - $45- of the per capita for 2019. This will help give our general fund a little cushion if everyone will help cover the cost of the per capita.
