The Color of Snow

February 2020

Many years ago (I was in college) I had an album of Ed Ames singing various folk tunes. One of my favorites was titled The Color Snow. Here are the lyrics:

"I've grown so weary of things as they are...

I want fairy tale endings and cakes in a jar, and peaceful around me wherever I go and one Love that's always the color of snow... the color of snow...

I've grown so tired of traveling fast. I want echoes and oak trees and time that will last. A world full of gentle... and lights that are low... the color of snow...

*Who'll be my gentle, my peaceful, my low... my quiet, my tender, the color of snow?
I don't belong in a humdrumming world... I want leatherbound books with the pages all curled, a heart full of quiet and seedlings to grow...*

and one Love that's always the color of snow."

I've always thought the timing of Lent (especially for the church in the northern Hemisphere) is a powerful portent of winter....with the Hope of Spring to come.

This year, this February....may you rest in the Lord. And, no matter how dormant hope looks in your cold, dark and drear, know the Truth: New Life is near; love is on the Way!

Jeff

PER CAPITA

Each church in PCUSA helps support the Office of the General Assembly (OGA) in Louisville, Kentucky. This office is funded through "per capita". Congregations pay this "per capita" based on the number of active members they have. Our total cost for the "per capita" is about $5,000, which comes from our general fund. Currently, 51 members pay the per capita for themselves, which amounts to $1980. Session is asking everyone to consider donating their individual portion - $45.10- of the per capita for 2020. This will help give our general fund a little cushion if everyone will help cover the cost of the per capita.

Congratulations to our class of 2022 Elders and Deacons:
Sue Nelson (E), Scott Hunzeker (E), Barb Shaeffer (E), Jane Bitney (D), Ruth Hunzeker (D)
